General Information

Voter Eligibility: You are eligible to register to vote if you are a U.S. citizen, age 18 or older, and a legal resident of the county in which you are registering.

Florida's Closed Primary Elections: If all candidates for an office have the same party affiliation and the winner of the primary will have no opposition in the general election, all eligible voters, regardless of party affiliation, may vote in the primary election for that office. Otherwise, the primary is closed, and only voters registered with a political party may vote in that party's primary.

You may also register at: Tax Collector offices, social service offices, public libraries, offices that serve persons with disabilities, armed forces recruitment offices, centers for independent living, and many city halls and chambers of commerce. You may also download an application at VotePinellas.com.

Where to Vote: At the polling place in your precinct. Call the Supervisor of Elections office for the location or check online at VotePinellas.com. Your voter information card will list your party affiliation and districts. You may also vote by mail or vote early.

Government in the Sunshine: The Florida Sunshine Law requires that all meetings at which decisions about public business are made, including those of the Florida Legislature, be open to the public. The Florida Open Records Law requires that the files of all public agencies be open for public inspection.
