Six Candidates Qualify for County Judge

The Pinellas County Supervisor of Elections, Deborah Clark, confirms six candidates completed their qualifying requirements for County Judge during this week's qualifying period. All candidates qualified by filing the required documents and paying a qualifying fee.

Following are the 2018 qualified candidates for County Judge:

Cathy Ann McKyton – Group 2
Donald E. Horrox – Group 5
Myra Scott McNary – Group 7
Joshua Riba – Group 11
Loraine M. Kelly – Group 16
Susan Bedinghaus – Group 17

Unopposed candidates do not appear on the ballot and will become elected automatically.

Statewide, the qualifying period for US Senator, Representative in Congress, Judicial, State Attorney, and Public Defender candidates began at noon Monday (April 30) and ended at noon today (May 4). Candidates for federal office, circuit judge, state attorney and public defender qualify with the Florida Division of Elections.
